Pastor’s Corner

Summer is my favorite season of the year. I love the long days and the slower pace of life. As always for me, the days have flown by this summer. It seems like just yesterday (but actually it was June 4) that I attended the U2 concert at Qwest Field with my daughter Rebecca. It’s been a time of milestones in my family: Rebecca getting her driver’s license; Deb’s grandfather passing away; Alina advancing in her taekwondo belt tests; me finally finishing the first draft of my doctoral dissertation. We’ve also been able to spend lots of time with family from California and upstate New York.

Now that summer is coming to an end and school will be starting up again, our programs at WPC are also beginning to gear up. Here are some upcoming events to look forward to in the next few weeks:

- September 11: Our annual church picnic at Wallingford Park. For more information, contact Cay Shoemake.
- September 26: The first Men’s Breakfast of the year.
- October 2: The church school year starts up on this day, with classes for adults, youth, and children at 9:15 am. The adult class this day will be led by Martina Fomban, our friend and regular worshipper from Cameroon. In following weeks, Laura Wideburg will teach for 5 Sundays on "Christianity in the High Middle Ages." This day is also World Communion Sunday, when we celebrate our union with churches around the world, and Korean Glory Presbyterian Church will be worshipping together with us. In addition, we’ll be collecting the Peacemaking Offering and participating in the annual CROP Walk against hunger that will take place after church at Green Lake (see Cay Shoemake for more info). Please plan on joining us for this special day.
- October 30: Gina Topp will once again be leading the Harvest Party for our children.

There’s a great deal happening at WPC this fall. Join us in prayers of great joy that a new season of church life is about to begin!

Grace and Peace,
Pastor Ken
